

FUEL AND POWER SECTION

NAME OF JOB (rating): Business Economist (GS-14)

DUTIES:

Chief of the Fuel and Power Section. Responsible for performance of the functions listed in Section II-C as they relate to fuel and power matters.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

BS in Engineering and one year graduate training.

Experience:

Twelve years in private industry as employee of companies associated with the petroleum industry. Three of the twelve years as assistant division manager and four years as division manager of the Ethyl Corporation.

Approximately three years in the Aviation Petroleum Branch, Headquarters USAF and approximately six months in Germany and Japan during 1946 engaged in technical intelligence activities pertaining to conventional, jet and rocket fuels and pertaining to producing facilities.

Approximately four years with the Army-Navy Petroleum Board and its successors the Armed Services Petroleum Board and the Munitions Board Petroleum Committee. As senior civilian of the staff, outlined and reviewed major studies relating to world-wide petroleum developments and US military policy. Prepared special studies (with assistance of staff personnel) such as availability of aviation fuels in event of war, strategic implications of the dollar-sterling problem as it affects military petroleum supplies in event of war, position of the US Military in respect to the petroleum import-export problem, National Oil policy as proposed by the Department of Defense, and drafts of current JCS policies on military petroleum stocks.

NAME OF JOB (Rating): Business Economist (GS-13)

DUTIES:

Under the supervision of the Chief of the Section, responsible for performance of the functions listed in Section II-C as they relate to electric power.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

Degree of Mechanical Engineer, Cornell University (4 years).

Experience:

Twenty-nine years in various managerial and executive positions in the public utility industry for operating companies in New York, Pennsylvania, and Florida. Duties were principally concerned with operations, including budget preparation and statistical reporting, and with planning and technical engineering.

~~SECRET~~

SEP 1 1961
MAIL 2

- 2 - ~~SECRET~~

Approved For Release : CIA-RDP61S00527A000100140080-4

Four years in U.S. Navy, Commander USN, in Facilities Branch, Bureau of Ships, having to do with the granting of Naval funds and the supervision of their expenditure for new and expanded manufacturing facilities for the production of naval material.

One year as Member of the Navy Price Adjustment Board, being principally concerned with the renegotiation of World War II contracts to determine whether excess profits existed.

NAME OF JOB (rating): Business Economist (GS-11).

DUTIES

Under the supervision of the Chief of the Section responsible for performance of the functions listed in Section II-C as they relate to petroleum and natural gas in the USSR and Outer Mongolia.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

Army: Military Intelligence.

Education: School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University.

Subjects: International and Domestic Economics, 40 points;
Political Science and International Law, 41 points;
Russian language, 15 points.

Graduate School, Georgetown University.

Subjects: Geopolitics, international relations and economics.

Approximately six years of intelligence experience. (CIA three years;
Army three years).

Experience:

Progressively responsible positions in research which has consisted of evaluation of intelligence information, and the production and presentation of economic intelligence reports involving Eastern Europe.

Working independently within limits of supervision, have been responsible for the direction and coordination of delegated research. Reports published have included economic, technical, and military conditions in Eastern Europe, requiring a knowledge of Eastern Europe, Russian language, specialized research techniques, determination of intelligence information requirements for intelligence collection agencies, and satisfying requirements proposed to Section.

NAME OF JOB (rating): Business Economist (GS-11)

DUTIES:

Under the supervision of the Chief of the Section, responsible for performance of the functions listed in Section II-C as they relate to petroleum and natural gas in Eastern Europe.

QUALIFICATIONS

Approved For Release : CIA-RDP61S00527A000100140080-4

~~SECRET~~

Formal Training:

BS degree in Math and Physics. About one year of graduate work.

Experience:

Almost seven years experience in the field of Fuel and Power in the Department of State and CIA. At first in State on Electric Power, later on coal, petroleum and natural gas. Most of the work was on Central and Eastern Europe-- Germany, Austria, Italy, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Albania, Rumania, Bulgaria, Finland. Experience has been in the economic phases of Fuel and Power rather than the technological.

NAME OF JOB (rating): Business Economist (GS-7)

DUTIES:

Under the immediate supervision of the Assistant Chief of the Section, responsible for the performance of the functions listed in Section II-C as they relate to electric power.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

BS in General Engineering (1947). Courses included about 40 hours of Mechanical Engineering, 20 hours of Civil Engineering subjects, 9 hours of Chemical Engineering, and 3 hours of Electrical Engineering; also 9 hours of courses in Economics. 18 hours of courses were taken beyond the requirements for a degree. Master of Arts Degree (1949). Courses included 15 hours of International Economics and 3 hours in Russian History. 18 hours of courses were taken beyond the requirements for a degree.

Experience:

Five months as Assistant Engineering Officer aboard a destroyer following commissioning as naval officer.

One year with CIA as Business Economist in Fuel and Power Section.

NAME OF JOB (rating): Business Economist (GS-9)

DUTIES:

Under the supervision of the Chief of the Section, responsible for performance of the functions listed in Section II-C as they relate to coal.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

4 years at the University of Pennsylvania and University of Pittsburgh. BS in Economics. Two years of night school at George Washington University.

SECRET

Approved For Release : CIA-RDP61S00527A000100140080-4

Experience:

Eight years experience in coal mining in Western Pennsylvania, including capacities of assistant mine foreman, mine foreman and operator. At one time or another I have done practically every job there in connection with the mining and sale of coal.

Worked for three years for the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation, Irvin Works, mainly in the cold reduction and tin temper departments on the rolling mills, shears and in the office.

Three years experience with the Solid Fuels Administration, analyzing cost and production data and preparing reports on all bituminous districts as well as the anthracite region of the United States.

One year with the Bureau of Mines, Foreign Minerals Section, which was spent in preparation of a report on all minerals in Mexico.

Two years with CIA in present position.

Approved For Release : CIA-RDP61S00527A000100140080-4

SECRET